Students at DPS Surat expressed their affection and gratitude for their teachers by putting up a fun-filled show for them on Teachers' Day. While students of Classes VII and XII stepped into the teachers' shoes and taught their juniors, students of Classes XI and XII organized exciting games for the teachers. The teachers participated enthusiastically in these games which included Treasure Hunt and Dumb Charades. The show also included a self choreographed dance and the 'spicy' fish-pond which revealed the teachers' views on their colleagues. This was followed by an impressive photo session of the seniors with all the teachers. The day was enjoyed by teachers and students alike.

GRANDPARENTS WEEK

Everything my grandparent does is something special made with love.

They take time to add the extra touch that says, "I love you very much."

The children of class Prep celebrated 'GRANDPARENTS WEEK' from 15th September to 19th September 2008. Grandparents were invited to spend a morning with their grandchildren in the school and were received warmly by the students. An enchanting puppet show was presented on the occasion. One could see the sparkle in their eyes as they saw their children perform for them.

PEOPLE AT WORK

In order to familiarize our young learners with different occupations in our community, a potter was invited on 18th- 19th September to demonstrate his skill to the students of classes Pre-Nursery- class II. He had brought in his wheel for the purpose.

The children watched with rapt attention as he moulded exquisite earthen lamps and pots with his hands.

25TH NATIONAL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP 2008

Arshia Saraf (VIII-F) participated in 25th Youth National Basketball Championship 2008 which was held at Bhilai Steelplant, Chhatisgarh.

IN HOUSE

Parents of students of Nursery class got an excellent opportunity to observe their children from close quarters during the In-house organized in the school premises.

They saw their wards excel in various academic and co-curricular activities. This event continued for a fortnight.

INTER DPS QUIZ COMPETITION

The Inter DPS Quiz Competition was held at DPS Nagpur on 19th of this month. The subject for the quiz was Contemporary India'. Rudresh Awasthi (IX E) and Ramadevi Tentu(IX D), escorted by Ms Gargee Rajadhyax, represented DPS Surat. Other participating schools were DPS Ahmedabad, DPS Jodhpur, DPS Navi Mumbai, and DPS Nagpur. DPS Surat secured the Participatory trophy.

CLASSES I & II PICNIC

School picnics are always eagerly awaited by the students as they not only provide a break from the daily routine but also widen the horizon of their knowledge. The students of Classes I & II were delighted when they were taken to Kribhco Garden and Chowpatty respectively during 25 September-30 September. Various games were played by students and teachers. The outing was enjoyed by everyone.

Arpit Kanodia (IX-B) and Jay Shah (VII-B) Participated in All India Inter DPS Roller Skating Championship 2008 (for boys) held At DPS Karnal.

INTRACLASS CERTIFICATE DESIGNING COMPETITION

An innovative and thematic Certificate Designing Competition was held on 27th of this month for classes VII to IX. This competition provided a wonderful platform for the students to showcase their artistic talent.
