

CARTOONOMICS

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK:

Did you forget any of them? ...we remember everything right from Popeye to Pokemon. Cartooning is more like preaching. They teach us that humour shall remain an important propaganda in life. Stephan Hawkins said, "I like physics, but I love cartoons". Thus nobody is ever too old for cartoons. They help us identify the missing links of happiness in our life and convey the meaning of life in the lightest manner possible." They are a source of joy and inspiration to all the world." In this ISSUE we take you back to those days and give you a glimpse of those toons that ruled and will continue to rule television. They remain ever ours.

POKEMON

Misty and her Spearo and Ash and his picakachu and Broock and his Bulbasaue ruled our lives for nearly 10 years. It preaches that "if we all work together and help one another we can achieve everything." It also teaches us to rebel and oppose with grace and not to let down your spirit because of your failure. It highlights the important phenomena of teamwork.

Friendship is a ship that never sinks-this is an important message highlighted from this series.
